

New York Council for the Humanities

www.nyhumanities.org | @nyhumanities

This two-fold event will feature a panel discussion and a job skills fair. After a brief history of gender inequality in the workplace, panelists will discuss the systemic challenges women face today. Before and after the discussion, attendees will have the opportunity to learn more about professional development opportunities and resources. Organizations from the Capital Region will share their resources and services such as workshops, scholarships, networking events, and more.

PANELISTS

Carmen Duncan is the CEO and founder of Mission Accomplished Transition Services.

Allison Dunne is the host of WAMC's 51%, a program that focuses on the viewpoints of women.

Karyn Loscocco is a Professor of Sociology at University at Albany, SUNY.

Barbara Smith is a pioneering feminist and author currently working at the City of Albany's Cultural Affairs Department.

GENDER EQUALITY IN THE WORKPLACE

Tuesday, July 26 | 6:30 – 8:00 p.m.
The Linda, WAMC's Performing Arts Center
339 Central Avenue, Albany, NY

Free and open to the public

RSVP required: albanydialogues.eventbrite.com

Major support from:

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE

Humanities

Additional support from:

WAMC NORTHEAST
PUBLIC RADIO

Follow the conversation on  using #NYDialogues

